

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

Bunbury Fibre Exports is committed to creating and maintaining equal opportunity at its workplaces.

Bunbury Fibre Exports will foster tolerance in the workplace. It will promote the prevention of discrimination and harassment including but not limited to gender, race, marital or family status, age, sexual orientation, disability, religious or political beliefs.

To achieve these aims, Bunbury Fibre Exports will:

- Ensure all employees, contractors, consultants and visitors are educated in their individual and corporate responsibilities and rights relating to equal opportunity.
- Ensure that all managers support this policy and be responsible for upholding these objectives within their area of responsibility.
- Ensure that all employment and workplace practices are based on fairness and equity and are free from discrimination and harassment.
- Investigate and endeavour to resolve all complaints of discrimination and harassment.
- Actively promote the equal inclusion of all persons female or male in decision making processes and activities of the business.
- Regularly review equal opportunity.

Bunbury Fibre Exports shall ensure it meets all its legal obligations in respect to National Legislation and that of the International Labour Organisation.
